

PAUL BRANA MEMORIAL FUND
BURLINGTON DISCOVER JAZZ FESTIVAL
Spring 2017 Workshop Application

Paul Brana was a kindhearted, gifted musician with a love for music education and his fellow Vermont musicians. On behalf of his friends and family, an annual fund has been established to connect local musicians with school music programs throughout Vermont, instilling an appreciation of jazz for the next generation. Over the next five years, approximately 25 schools will receive free workshops as part of this program. The topic of the workshop will be chosen by the educator in order to cater to each schools need.

Schools wishing to apply for a free workshop must meet the following criteria:

- Applicants must be a Vermont School
- Have a rehearsing high school level jazz group (during school or after-school are both eligible)

(Please type or print)

NAME: _____

SCHOOL: _____

SCHOOL ADDRESS: _____

SCHOOL PHONE: _____ SCHOOL EMAIL: _____

Please briefly describe your jazz program and current instrumentation:

How many students participate? _____

How often do you rehearse? _____

What do you hope to get out of this workshop?

Please check any workshop(s) that would benefit your program the most:

Sectionals: Rhythm Section Saxophone Trumpet Trombone

Improvisation: Beginner Intermediate Advanced

Guest Conducting

DEADLINE FOR THIS APPLICATION IS DECEMBER 16, 2016

SUBMIT MATERIAL TO:

Burlington Discover Jazz Festival
attn.: Linda Little
156 College Street, Suite 202
Burlington, VT 05401
Fax: 802-864-3927
Email: info@discoverjazz.com

Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Additional Information:

- Due to limited funds, not all schools that apply will receive a workshop. Approximately five schools will be chosen in this application round to receive a workshop.
- Each applicant will be notified on or before February, 1 2017 of their status. If chosen, workshops will be scheduled with each school and visiting artist on an individual basis.